Residing in Honolulu.

SATURDAY, NOV. 30, 1895.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

It is with much pain that we print the following extract from the columns of the Bulletin:

Messrs. Towse and Hooge handled the affair as though they had been there themselves and knew just what the little boys wanted. After the dinner they were given a ride and free admission to the football game, where they yelled and tooted horns like good fellows.

There is one feature in regard to the liberated political prisoners which is highly creditable to them.
Everyone of them has used every possible influence in promoting the liberation of their fellow prisoners still in jail. Mr. T. B. Walker was seen by many of our well-known citizens, since his release, and at no time did he lose the occasion to put in a word for those few unfortunate men yet behind the bars. Such a spirit will be appreciated, even by the most rabid political opponents, of the principles advanced by the "opposition."

And now the Advertiser shakes hands with itself and publishes letters from "A woman," "Justice," and other anonymous admirers of the editor, who suddenly turned the official organ in favor of "let 'em all go" the day after the chance for doing so was lost. The morning sheet was simply so mad because seven of the prisoners were released that it could not retain its policy.
Its spiteful ebullition has been misconstrued into a serious desire on the part of the official organ to see the prisoners out and the organ has lost no time in taking advantage of the misconception.

A Great Success.

The girls at Kawaiahao gave a splendid entertainment last evening.
The large hall of the seminary was beautifully decorated, and the pupils looked their very best.

The musical rendition of the girls was highly appreciated and great credit is given to the teachers of the institution.

All the children who took part in the entertainment are deserving of praise. We desire only to mention Violet Lima and Hattie Ayau among the girls who show the careful musical training of seminary.

AN INDUCEMENT.

L. B. Kerr is to the Front Again, and Now Gives Away a Piano

When it was known this morning that L. B. Kerr had offered the very best of the New England pianos as a prize to the customer who before the 31st of December, can make the nearest guess as to the amount of seeds contained in an immense pumpkin to be displayed in his store, there has been a constant run on his stock.

The ladies of Honolulu have been aware that Mr. Kerr keeps the finest assortment of dressgoods, underwear, laces, flowers and flounces in Honolulu, and they will certainly not neglect the chances of getting a piano thrown in by purchasing $5 worth of goods.

The pumpkin will be opened in the presence of a committee on the 31st of December, and every purchaser of $5 worth of goods is entitled to a guess. The person who can make the closest guess will be entitled to the piano which will be promptly delivered.

We can state here that the invoice received by Mr. Kerr by the Warrimoo is unequalled in Honolulu.

Even if the piano wasn't offered, it would be well worth to call in and inspect the fine stock now offered for sale.

The new England pianos are considered by every musician the best instruments ever introduced here, and L. B. Kerr is the sole agent for them.

Will End In Harmony.

We do not know who the reporter to the Advertiser of the Synod meeting, which took place on Thursday evening, is. He certainly is not anxious to further the good work of the Church or to establish a harmonious feeling between the two congregations.

The garbled report in the morning sheet makes it appear that there has been an unjust attempt to oust Mr. Mackintosh from his position as parson of the Second Congregation.

As far as we understand the situations all that has been attempted is to unite the two factions which, to our ideas, have waged war against each other in a manner not exactly becoming a Christian church and professed Christians.

The speeches made at the last meeting were temperate and proper, and the appointment of a disinterested committee to find ways and means to join the two congregations can only be considered a wise step.
Those interested in the future prosperity of the Anglican Church cannot hesitate in approving of a movement which eventually will heal the wound and make the worshippers at that Church a united body.

The question of Mr. Mackintosh as an "in" or "out" ought to play no role in the main issue.

The Historical Society.

The members of the Hawaiian Historical Society met last night, at the Y. M. C. A. building. Mr. Dole presided. Professor Alexander presented the annual report and showed the reasons why very little had been accomplished during the past year.

The report of G. P. Castle, the treasurer, was also read and showed that the society has a credit of over $300 in the bank. Several suggestions were made in regard to the preservation of papers and books and it is generally hoped that the society will find itself in a more flourishing condition during the coming year.

The Hawaiian Historical Society is a most valuable institution and deserves to be patronized by everybody interested in the islands, and in the Hawaiians.

Timely Topics.

Honolulu, Oct. 25, 1895.

It has been demonstrated in a most serious manner during the late epidemic of what vital importance pure water is to all human beings. While our medical men have differed in opinion in regard to the nature and treatment of the epidemic which now fortunately is ended, there has only been one opinion in regard to the imperative necessity of having an ample supply of pure water for all purposes. In Honolulu the water supply is now plentiful both for drinking purposes and for irrigation. The same cannot be said for the country districts. In many places it is necessary for the inhabitants to carefully save rainwater in tanks especially where artesian wells are impossible.

It has been a great help to people living in the country that we have introduced the celebrated Aermotor in these islands. Many people have availed themselves of the golden opportunity to purchase one of our galvanized Aermotors, and they have in all instances expressed themselves as highly satisfied with the bargain.

The Aermotor is especially appreciated because it runs in the lightest wind. Being geared back three to one, it starts with only a third of the load that the ordinary mill has to contend with. This enables it to start and run in a zephyr so light that all competitors stand idly by. Again, its lightweight and perfect bearing enable it to face up to and get the full benefit of the breeze. The wheel is so light and its efficiency so great that it is an absolute calm indeed which induces it to stand still.

The lightweight of the Aermotor is a strong point in its favor. The weight affects the cost of transportation; the ease of handling and erection; the facility of turning on the tower to face the wind for work; the regulation for safety in a high wind; the recovery of working position when danger is past; the sagging of the tower out of shape; the vibration and breaking of the tower in a storm and consequently the weight, strength and cost of a tower and foundations. The Aermotor only weighs about two-fifths as much as the other mills which do the same work. The great disparity in weight is in part made possible by the use of steel, malleable iron, and the very best materials throughout, and explains why so excellent a piece of work can be turned out at so low a price.

We invite farmers and others who have use for an Aermotor to call in at our stores, or write to us and we shall be pleased to give every further information necessary in regard to this invaluable farm implement.
